

the Men'sWork

From the ManKind Project Canada

A Space for Men

to Get Real

3-Week Live Online Course

June 22, 29 & July 6 @ 7:00PM MDT

Come on an Adventure

We've launched a platform designed for the man starting out on his personal growth journey. It's a course for men to take a first step into something unknown – a men's group.

In just three short weeks we'll give you a solid foundation for moving ahead in your life, and you won't be going alone.

The Journey Begins

Men all over the world are hearing a wake-up call. Sometimes it's hard to hear. The noise of 'regular life' can get very overwhelming. Some men are hearing the call all the time, but trying like hell to ignore it.

Are you one of these men?

The call is your soul's longing. Longing to feel more powerful, to get unstuck, build better relationships, and feel like you're really doing something to make your life matter. It's about your connection, inspiration, passion, and fulfillment. Answering the call means taking a risk. And let's face it, that can be a scary proposition.

"The Men's Work is not only a great introduction to what the ManKind Project is all about, it is a chance for any man to learn how to connect more directly and deeply with himself and others. As with anything, you get out of it what you bring in: I highly recommend jumping in with both feet." ~ George R.

"The Men's Work online course was inspiring and insightful. Not only did it clarify where I am at on my journey of this life, but also clearly defined resources and support to help me grow and expand. If you have made it far enough to be reading this testimonial, than you are already at the next step, sign up! You won't regret it. Thank you ManKind Project" ~ Scott O.

"My Men's Work was an opportunity to tune out all the noise that accosts me during the day and focus only and completely on myself and experiences of other men. It is a unique experience, unmatched by anything else in life." ~ Anonymous.
